Roberto Buzeta, exchange student from Quezon City in the Phillipine Islands, attended Lincoln High School during the whole of this school year.

At home he attended Ateneo High, a private school which has about 280 seniors. He played basketball, was a member of the Glee Club and helped referee school games.

He reported that he was not allowed any elective classes at home but that there was no dress code and students could quit school at any age.

Roberto plans to attend college, probably with a major in business management. While he was here, he lived with Kathy Guenther's family on Wright Road.

We're certainly glad that you could be with us this year, Roberto.

COACH WRIGHT RIGHT ON

It is always a pleasure to be able to call attention to the efforts of those people who give more for less than is called for by the positions they are in. Such a person is Mr. Sidney Wright, affectionately and often Sid, Lincoln alumnus, Class of '63, who has attended Tennessee State University, is presently a senior at Eastern Michigan University, and hopes upon getting his degree in Physical Education in June to get a teaching position in which he can do for money what he has done these many years mostly out of a deep concern for the welfare of Lincoln kids whom he regards as the "greatest." So is he. Thanks, Sid.

MAJORETTES UP ON TOP

L. to R. : Captain Pat Sanderson, Diane Dietrich, Cheryl Patterson, Jean Shoner, Linda Scott, Cindy Polzin.

Down, Down, and Away! Well, it is hard to be serious all the time, isn't it?

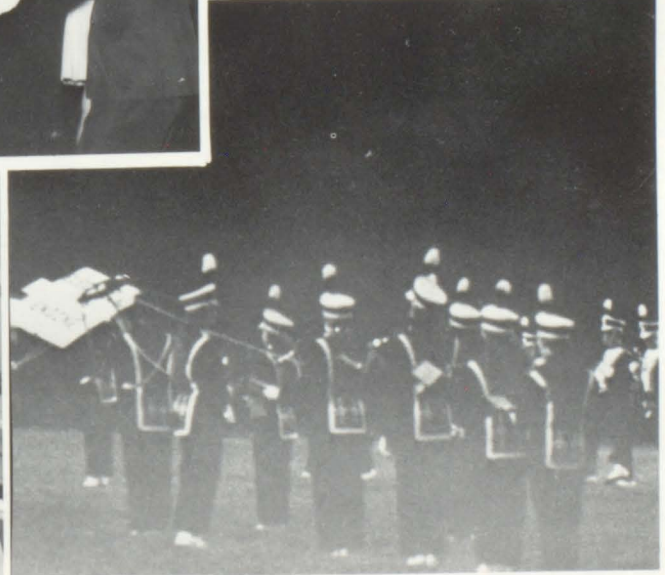

The majorettes are shown performing the routine done to the tune of "Zing! Went the Strings of My Heart," which when they performed it with the marching band at the District XII competition enabled the band to take a first place, beating out even Saline, much to the astonishment of Mr. Bowman, who though proud of their show, would have been happy to be No. 2. Well done, girls!

BAND

Above, the aggregation which only missed State by half a grade; below, a solo and ensemble that didn't; and at the center of it all, intimidating Ernie, the man who makes it all happen even when they don't want it to.

ORCHESTRA

Shown above in full array and regalia is The Lincoln High School Orchestra which this year went to the State Orchestra Festival and took second place.

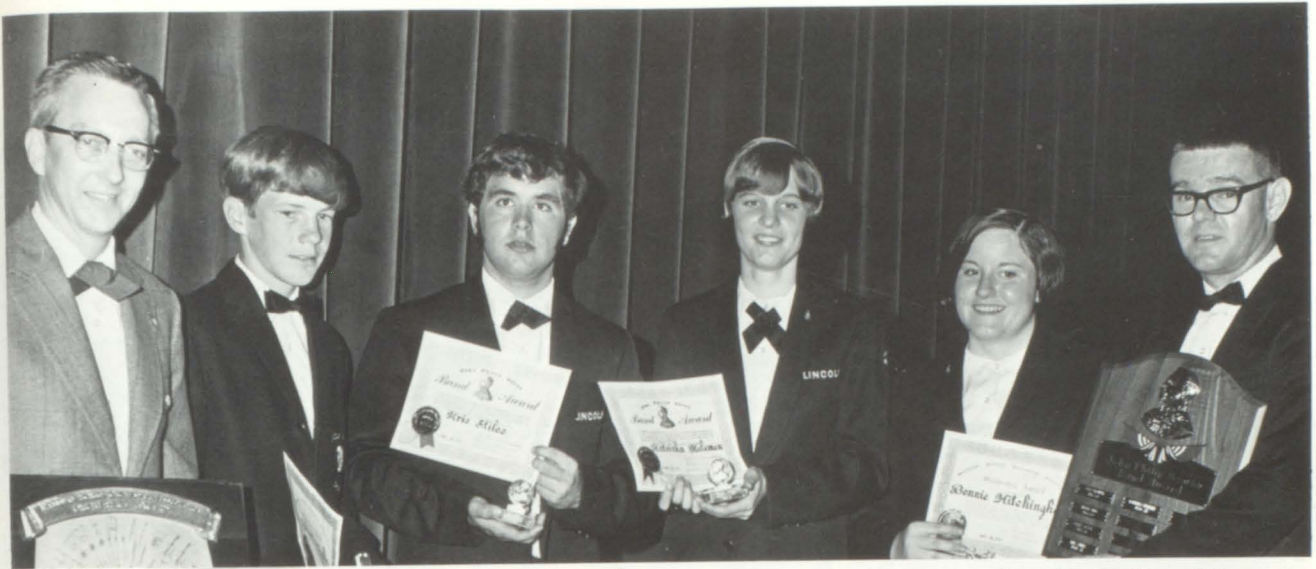

PIT ORCHESTRA

The formally garbed and casually blase group which is shown to the right did not look at all like this in its heyday when it was sweating out cues during the two successful performances of "Ask Any Girl" which in conjunction with the chorus and drama departments, it helped put on.

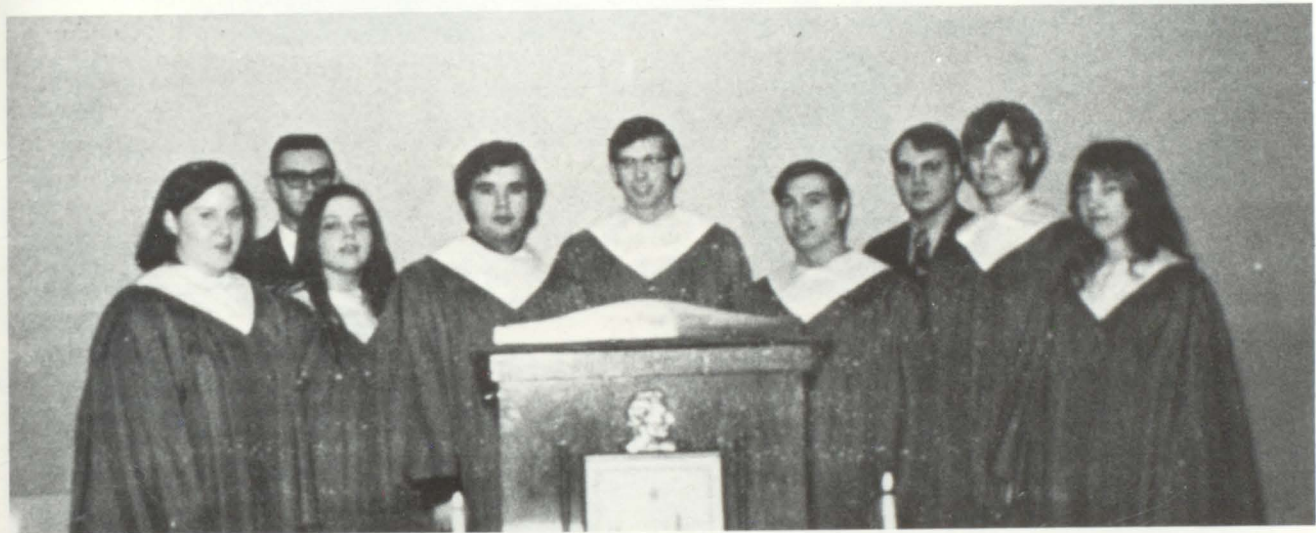

POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE

This famous group, world-renowned for its renditions of Elgar's "I Faw Down Go Boom-Boom" which is sometimes known as "Pomp and Circumstance" convenes twice annually, once for bacculaureate and again for commencement. Under the leadership of their U of M trained conductor they do their best to get the graduates on- to the field in some kind of cadence. Left, drag, right, drag ...

Band awards presented to K. Stiles and K. Kelemen (center) and Orchestra awards to R. Dicks and B. Hitchingham by Band Booster President Sinclair and Mr. Bowman.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS AND NURSES

The Future Nurse's Club under the continuing direction of Mrs. Wiard has made its usual contribution this year to the March of Dimes by way of its January dance and has also raised money for a scholarship which went this year to Sue Fleszar. Shown with Mrs. Wiard are, STANDING; Connie Cox, Camille Branham, Debrha Tyler and Sue Fleszar. SEATED ARE: Colleen Slavick, Barbara Garlick and Linda McClary.

BUILDING TRADES

This is the house that the crackerjacks-to-be below were building this year as part of a program jointly with Ypsilanti and Willow Run High Schools. Despite a fire which occurred part-way through construction, it was completed on time and put up for sale, perhaps for the last time.

This is the afternoon shift of those who spent part of the day in school and part of the day on the job learning how to get a job. Good luck, guys!

ACTIVITIES

HOME-COMING

At right, the Class of 1972's 1st place float, "Losers Lead a Dog's Life." Well, Lincoln lost; the Juniors won.

Above left, the Sophomore float which tied with the Freshman float, above right, for second place.

Here at the bottom, alone in third place, plus D. Barlage and minus the girls who accompanied it, is the senior float.

RALLY ROUND THE FLAG BOYS

For a goodly period last fall, that was just what Mrs. Guemsey, our new dramatics coach was saying. And they did. Emie Terry, Tony Bates, Tim O'Brien, Joe Ye-kulis, to mention only a few. But it didn't stop there. The girls rallied round too - Marcie Borgman, Marcella Locke, Roz Duncans, Laurie Federer, again to mention only a few. And after the usual trials and tribulations, coupled with the trepidations of their usually calm coach, they carried off with dispatch the story of the invasion of Putnam' Landing by the proposed Nike base. It all came out right in the end as we all knew it would with the right couples coupled and no more than the usual tittering at their clinches.

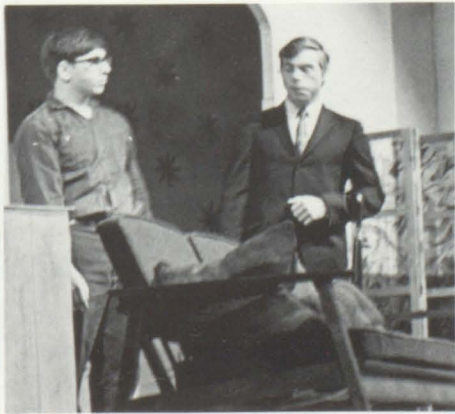

ASK ANY GIRL!

At the end of April this year the Drama and Music departments under the guidance of Mrs. Guernsey, Mr. Bowman, and Mr. Harrell, collaborated to put on the musical, "Ask Any Girl!"

Kay Krakowiak, Roger Phillips and Bob Davis made up the triangle, and were ably assisted by M. Locke, K. Rickard, V. Hubbard, T. Bates, J. Yekulis, K. Pribble, not to mention that family of G. Roome, B. Hitchingham, S. Amett and B. Dawson.

The adventures of a good, clean cut American girl as she succumbs to the evils of the big city and a computerized society were well and amusingly presented.

Commendations are in order for all who took part in this effort.
